MURPHY & MCGONIGLE 2019 CLE SERIES

COMMODITIES & DERIVATIVES – SURVEILLANCE AND SPOOFING

Vigilant surveillance of trading has never been more critical. As exemplified by their coordinated spoofing takedown last year, the CFTC and DOJ continue to be aggressive in their identification and prosecution of spoofing and disruptive trading activity by individuals and the companies that employ them. During this 1.5 hour CLE program, we will go through the recent CFTC and DOJ actions, discuss the importance of trading data analysis for these types of cases, and provide best practices.

We look forward to seeing you!
